

The Congressional Award

March/April 2004

www.congressionalaward.org

Vol. 10, No. 2

Upcoming Events

SAVE THE DATES

The Congressional Award Foundation will host its golf tournament, The Congressional Award Classic, on June 7, 2004, at Andrews AFB, Maryland. For information and sponsorships, please contact Kevin Lefton at (202) 226-9979. See you on the green!!!

Don't forget, the 2004 Congressional Award Gold Medal Ceremony will take place in Washington, DC on June 23, 2004. Gold Medal Earners, please remember to send in your bios!

The Congressional Award Foundation will be hosting several fundraisers over the coming months. If interested in attending, please con-

Welcome Aboard!

The Congressional Award Foundation is proud to announce the addition of six new members to the Board of Directors. We are pleased to welcome Michael Cohen of Heller Ehrman; Kathy Didawick of the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Association; Brad Enzi of South Park Development (WY); Michael Flannigan of the Rio Tinto Corporation; Marc Monyek of the McDonald's Corporation; and Greg Walker of RAG American Coal Holding, Inc.

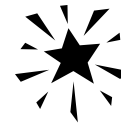

Did you know?

- There are over 16,000 active Congressional Award participants!
- New Jersey, California, Florida and Virginia are our most active states.
- The Congressional Award is celebrating its 25th anniversary this year.

Recent Ceremonies

South Dakota- (left) Senior Airman Brandon Corwin was presented with a Congressional Award Bronze Medal by Senator Tom Daschle during a February 21, 2004 ceremony at Ellsworth Air Force Base in Rapid City. California- (middle) In a March 19, 2004 ceremony, Congressman Chris Cox bestows Aaron Allen with a Congressional Award Gold Medal at his district office. Virginia- (right) Congressman Tom Davis recently recognized a group of individuals from his district in a March 15, 2004 ceremony at his Annandale office. Pictured here from left to right are: William E. Kelley, Congressional Award National Director; Don Ellison, Vice President of the Virginia Congressional Award Council, Laura Honan and Congressman Davis.

Voluntary Public Service * Personal Development * Physical Fitness * Expedition/Exploration