

The Congressional Award

Public Law 96-114, The Congressional Award Act

September/October 2004

www.congressionalaward.org

Vol. 10, No. 5

RECENT DISTRICT CEREMONIES

On August 18, 2004 in the United States Capitol Building, District of Columbia Delegate Eleanor Holmes Norton presented Congressional Award Medals to five young constituents. From left to right are Alexander Lorman, Ann Carr, Michelle Jackson, Delegate Holmes Norton, Jasmine Brown, Joseph Brown, and Bill Kelley, former Congressional Award National Director.

September 17, 2004, Congressman Wayne T. Gilchrest (MD-01) presented Congressional Award Bronze Medals to Jeremy Robilotta, Thomas Franco-vitch, Jr., and Megan Lynn. The ceremony took place in Representative Gilchrest's district office in Bel Air, Maryland.

Happy Retirement Captain Kelley !

September 30th marked the retirement of The Congressional Award's National Director, Captain Bill Kelley (USN-Ret.). The Congressional Award staff and Board of Directors greatly appreciate Captain Kelley's hard work and wish him the best of luck in his future adventures. Erica Wheelan Heyse will serve as interim National Director until a permanent hire is made.

Do you have a story for us?

If you have pictures of a ceremony or any story that may be of interest, please send them to us via email at information@congressionalaward.org or call us at (202) 226-0130.

Over the summer, Silver Medalist Nizar I. Boodhwani had the pleasure of meeting with Congressman Randy Neugebauer (TX-19). Siblings Ismail (Bronze Medalist) and Zulaikha Boodhwani also had the opportunity to meet with Texas Senator Kay Bailey Hutchison.

Monika Hammon, age 16, received her Bronze Medal from Congressman Adam Smith of Washington State's 9th District. The Ceremony took place at his district office in Tacoma, Washington on April 9, 2004. Monika is presently a junior at Decatur High School in the town of Federal Way.

Voluntary Public Service * Personal Development * Physical Fitness * Expedition/Exploration