

Volunteering is a win-win. Help your community + prepare for your dream job.

- Volunteering looks great on a resume and shows willingness to give your time and skills for a worthy cause.

- Volunteering enables you to develop new skills, experience new roles, find different perspectives, and explore outside your comfort zone.

- Expand your network by making connections with others with similar interests.

- Volunteering provides opportunities to explore new careers without a firm commitment.

- Volunteering builds your confidence! As you learn more and improve your skills, you will feel capable and competent.
